India: BigMint's billet index falls further on weak demand

06 May 2026

BigMint's billet index declined marginally by INR 50/t d-o-d to INR 42,150/t exw on 6 May 2026, as weak demand and subdued sentiment continued to weigh on spot offers.

Market activity remained sluggish throughout the session, with muted buying interest and limited enquiries in the semi-finished steel segment. Sources reported weaker sentiment in finished steel markets, with slower offtake discouraging fresh procurement. Buyers stayed on the sidelines, awaiting clearer signals on price sustainability before committing to new bookings.

Sellers, meanwhile, reduced spot offers to align with prevailing demand conditions. However, the price cuts failed to stimulate buying interest, as expectations of further corrections kept market participation limited and transactions largely need-based.

Finished steel softens

In Raipur, finished steel prices witnessed a mild correction. Both rebar and wire rod prices declined by INR 200/t d-o-d, reflecting weak end-user demand and limited enquiry levels. Market participants noted that subdued downstream demand continues to weigh on overall steel trade.

The conversion spread from pellet-based sponge iron (PDRI) to billets for standalone induction furnaces in the Raipur cluster was recorded at around INR 15,800/t.

Rationale

This index is derived based on transactions, offers, bids, and indicative price data sets. Transactions are considered T1 and given a weightage of 50%, whereas other data sets are considered as T2 and given a weightage of the balance 50%.

Transactions (T1) - No trades were recorded during the 10:30 am to 5:30 pm BigMint trading window .

Other price indicators - bids/offers/indicatives (T2) - Fourteen offers were reported in the trading window and considered as T2 inputs. The average price of these fourteen was INR 41,645/t and given a 100% weightage in the final price calculation.

The final price of billets was INR 41,645/t exw-Raipur, rounded off to INR 41,650/t exw.

From BigMint Team - While it would be our earnest endeavour, at BigMint, to bring about transparent and unbiased price index reporting, we would request all our readers and subscribers for their feedback and if they could participate in the reporting of more transactions.
